You May be Entitled to Benefits from a Class Action Settlement about Your Vacation Ownership Interest at Festiva Orlando Resort

A Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit alleging that the allocation of RCI Points associated with the Vacation Ownership Interests (“VOI”) of certain owners at the Festiva Orlando Resort, f/k/a Celebration World Resort (the “Resort”), was reduced in 2013 in violation of certain consumer protection laws and other laws. The settling defendants deny they did anything wrong.

Am I included? You are included if: (1) you are an owner of a VOI at the Resort (or are a former owner of a VOI at the Resort and are a current member of the Festiva Adventure Club); (2) you enrolled in the RCI Points Exchange Program; and (3) in 2013, you had your RCI Points allocation associated with your VOI at the Resort reduced by at least 25,000 RCI Points. If this postcard is addressed to you, you may be included in the Settlement unless you exclude yourself.

What can I get? If the Settlement is approved by a Federal Judge, Settlement Class Members who submit valid Claim Forms may receive certain benefits and a payment. Claim Forms are due by May 30, 2016.

What are my other rights? If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself in writing. The exclusion deadline is May 30, 2016. If you stay in the Settlement, you will not be able to sue the settling defendants for any claim relating to the issues in this lawsuit. If you stay in the Settlement, you may object to all or any part of it by May 30, 2016. The Court will hold a hearing on July 7, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. to consider whether to approve the Settlement and a request for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses in the amount of $420,000.00. The Court has appointed attorneys to represent the Class. You may hire your own attorney at your own expense.
